

Where ideas work

Ministry of Forests
Port McNeill, BC (Hybrid)

Flexible work options are available; this position may be able to work up to two (2) days at home per week subject to an approved telework agreement.

GIS Technician

$64,123.59 - $72,674.35 annually, plus $44.49 bi-weekly isolation allowance for Port McNeill.

The GIS Technician creates digital, graphic and descriptive products to support natural resource planning using Geographic Information Systems (GIS), Relational Database Management Systems (RDMS) and other corporate business systems. The GIS Technician supports planning and operational initiatives by inputting and manipulating data; maintaining data integrity; conducting analysis; and producing associated maps and reports.

Explore the opportunities and value working with our team can offer you: Why Work for the Ministry of Forests.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our team and being part of an innovative, inclusive and rewarding workplace.

For information about the Indigenous Applicant Advisory Service, please visit: Indigenous Applicant Advisory Service - Province of British Columbia \(gov.bc.ca\).

Qualifications for this role include:

- Diploma or degree in geographic information systems; OR
- Equivalent combination of training and related experience.
- Experience capturing, converting, creating, editing and maintaining digital information in a GIS environment.
- Experience creating a variety of digital, geographical and descriptive products such as thematic maps, terrain models and/or associated descriptive statistics.

Preference may be given to those applicants with:

- Experience working with ESRI (ArcGIS) software products.
- Operational forestry experience.

For more information and to apply online by July 25th, 2024, please go to:

<https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/114223>